AUBURN HILLS TO WELCOME OLGA'S KITCHEN ON FEBRUARY 17
Auburn Square is the 30th location for the Michigan-based restaurant company

TROY, MI – February 16, 2007 – Oakland County fans of Olga's Kitchen will get a new location to enjoy their favorite Olga's menu items on February 17 when the 4,000 square foot restaurant opens its 30th eatery at Auburn Square, 2580 North Squirrel Road, near the Oakland University campus and just a few minutes from The Palace of Auburn Hills. The new restaurant will open with seating for 128 guests.

Olga's Kitchen restaurants are located in Michigan, Illinois and Ohio. Last year Olga's opened locations in Allen Park, East Grand Rapids, Bloomfield Township and St. Clair Shores, Mich.

"All of our seven Oakland County locations are doing very well," said Olga's Kitchen President and CEO. "Our continued success is built around a fresh, made-to-order menu, great service and loyal guests." Jordan added that many of the company's 1400 employees have been with Olga's for more than five years, some over 20 and 25 years – making the company's employee retainment record well above the restaurant industry average. The Auburn Hills location will be served by more than 90 employees.

Olga's Kitchen serves lunch and dinner and features the number one system-wide selling menu item, the Original Olga®, broiled, seasoned beef and lamb topped with onions, tomatoes, and Olgasauce wrapped in a hot, grilled-to-order secret recipe Olga Bread.
