

OLGAS' CUSTOMERS SAY IT'S THE FOOD!

Email from devoted customers arrive every day – below are some sample messages

Pregnancy Craving

Please, please come to North Carolina! I am three months pregnant and craving Olga's every day! My family lives in Grand Rapids and I go to Olga's every time I visit. I love the Snackers™, salad and soup. Have you thought of expanding? Cary, NC is boomin and everyone loves new and different places to eat. Please consider it! My whole family misses Olga's very much. I know it would be a hit in Cary! We'll help with promotions! Thank you, and I want some Snackers™!!!

Begging for Olga's

She lived in the Detroit area for years and moved to Davidson, Mich.: "If we have to go the Detroit area, we always make sure that we stop at Olga's to eat. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE consider opening a restaurant in our area. We are begging!

Tired of Cheese Steaks

It's been over 10 years since I had Olga's and I can't take it anymore. I plan to drive out to Michigan in the summer and stay there for a couple days and eat at your restaurant for lunch and dinner every day I am there. People in this area are tired of cheese steaks and other greasy foods, and I think Olga's would be a nice change of pace for the people of the Philadelphia areas. I think it's something worth thinking about. Keep up the good work and see you sometime in the summer of '05.

Deep in the Heart of Texas

My mother used to take me for Orange Cream Cooler™ and every time we went it was a delicious treat. I miss your food and hope someday again I will be able to enjoy it. Come to Austin and San Antonio.

Military Blues

I grew up in Michigan and when I was a teen one of my favorite places to eat was Olga's in Birmingham. My boyfriend (husband now) and I used to go there all the time. He is in the military so we move all over the United States. We now live in Maryland. We were remembering how great the Olga's food was and got to talking about how we need an Olga's down here. Ever consider branching out to Maryland?

California Dreaming

Please open more locations in California! Your food is incredible, and there's really nothing quite like it. I've eaten at your restaurants in Thousand Oaks and in Michigan. When I visited Michigan I ate lunch there every day for a week straight. Maybe there is a way for you to ship your sandwiches to those us who aren't lucky enough to go to one of your locations. Olga's would be a welcome addition to Sacramento. Please do something; we need some good food here!
